Katina Reedy Joins Staff at Henry County Community Foundation

The Henry County Community Foundation welcomes Katina Reedy to their staff as Program Director, filling a position previously held by Jayanna Thompson, who moved out of the area to expand her pursuits. Reedy is responsible for the administration of the Foundation's grant-making program and scholarship services.

A graduate of Shenandoah High School, Reedy has a bachelor's degree in history from Olivet Nazarene University and a master of arts in history from Ball State University. Most recently, she worked at Minnetrista Cultural Center in Muncie and was also a volunteer at the Henry County Historical Society.
