Bill Stanczykiewicz Senior Lecturer and Director of The Fund Raising School

Bill Stanczykiewicz recently came on board as director of The Fund Raising School and senior lecturer in philanthropic studies.

Stanczykiewicz was previously president and CEO of the Indiana Youth Institute, a statewide nonprofit that promotes healthy youth development and academic achievement by providing capacity-building professional development, technical assistance and funding.

Prior to leading the Indiana Youth Institute, Stanczykiewicz was policy director for community renewal for the office of the mayor of Indianapolis, where he devised and directed the Front Porch Alliance, an innovative collaboration among faith-based and other community organizations to strengthen families and communities in Indianapolis.

He previously served as a key legislative aide to U.S. Senator Dan Coats on the Senate's Subcommittee on Children & Families. Stanczykiewicz has taught an undergraduate course in nonprofit leadership and management at Purdue University.

His community activities have included volunteering with an inner-city youth organization, coaching youth sports and serving on the board of the local community foundation.

In addition to earning a bachelor's degree in journalism from Northwestern University and a master's degree in public administration from George Mason University, he holds a post-graduate credential in executive leadership from Vanderbilt University.

Stanczykiewicz was identified as a "Next Generation Leader" by the Rockefeller Foundation, presented at the White House Conference on Helping America's Youth and was named a "Sagamore of the Wabash" by Office of the Governor of Indiana.
