Foundation Announces Grant Winners from Women's Gala

The Henry County Community Foundation is excited to announce the winning organizations from the sixth annual Women's Circle of Friends Gala, held at the Gathering in Lewisville. This year's three non-profit finalists were HOPE Initiative, New Castle Main Street, and Developmental Services. At the gala, members participated in an evening of philanthropy, fun, a cocktail buffet, and voted on a nonprofit organization to receive the pooled donations that would help strengthen Henry County.

The three finalists gave short presentations about their organizations, with attendees voting after the presentations. Members of the Women's Circle chose New Castle Main Street. Director, Carrie Barrett, presented a witty poem based on the Night Before Christmas explaining needs for downtown Christmas decorations. New Castle Main Street received a grant of $5,350. The other finalists received grants for $250.

The Women's Circle of Friends committee chose to award a grant from the Women's Circle of Friends for Women Endowment Fund for $1,039 to ICAP Women's Clinic. Nancy Lewis graciously accepted the grant.

GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

How big does a scholarship have to be?

According to Forbes magazine, the “Price of College is Increasing Almost 8 Times Faster Than Wages. Student loans make up the largest chunk of U.S. non-housing debt – more than both credit cards and auto loans.”

National news like this even affects students in our community and region. When the Henry County Community Foundation was established in 1985, a student could get a four-year degree at a public university for $11,812. Today, the average annual in-state college tuition in Indiana is $36,448 for a four-year degree. That’s over a 208% increase and doesn’t include room and board for those students who live on campus.

Scholarship endowment levels at the Henry County Community Foundation started at $5,000 in 1985 and they were main drivers of investment in the community. Trying to keep up with college costs to help students in their college debt burden, the scholarship endowment level was raised to $12,500 in 2008 to generate a $500 scholarship.

In order to help more students succeed in attaining a degree and not be so burdened in liability, the Henry County Community Foundation board of directors voted to increase the scholarship endowment level minimum to $25,000, effective January 1, 2020.

What does this mean for the 160 current scholarship funds?

Current established scholarships will continue to pay out at their endowment levels, and in 2018, that total amount was $330,000. The Foundation would like to work with donors of these scholarships and explore ideas to grow their capacity.

Receiving a scholarship of any amount is an honor – to both the student and to the donor, who created the scholarship. The Foundation’s scholarship donors have been so generous that their contributions make up 35% of our total assets.

The Henry County Community Foundation is a strong believer in helping our youth obtain their education goals. They make our world a better place. Beginning on January 1, 2020, when scholarship endowments require $25,000, these students will be better equipped to finish their degrees with less debt. Thank you to all our donors to the Foundation who are our partners in doing good.
